Joint Resolutions

(1-16) The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 1293

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING JUNE 20, 2023 AS WORLD REFUGEE DAY IN MAINE

WHEREAS, World Refugee Day was launched by the United Nations in 2001 to honor the bravery, strength and determination of refugees around the world who have been forced to flee their home countries under threat of conflict, violence, persecution and natural disaster; and

WHEREAS, refugees in communities across the welcoming state of Maine resettle in the hope of finding peace and safety for themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, for over 45 years, refugees from diverse social, cultural, racial, ethnic and religious backgrounds with a variety of skills, abilities and experiences have resettled in Maine and have been woven into the fabric of Maine's vibrant cultural tapestry; and

WHEREAS, refugee-led organizations in Maine share the priority of our State to strengthen communities by engaging with and improving the lives of all Maine people through fair and equitable access to education, health care and employment; and

WHEREAS, refugee and immigrant-owned businesses are important contributors to the economic and social vitality of communities across our State, supporting local economies and employing local people; and

WHEREAS, Maine celebrates the refugee communities throughout our State that have served on the front lines of the State's response to the COVID-19 pandemic, ensuring our safety during uncertainty and contributing to our strong and successful recovery; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Thirty-first Legislature now assembled in the First Special Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to recognize June 20, 2023 as World Refugee Day in Maine and the positive impact and enduring contributions of refugee communities in the State.

Comes from the House, READ and ADOPTED.

(1-17) The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 1294

JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING JUNE 2023 AS PRIDE MONTH

WHEREAS, the Stonewall riots that began on June 28, 1969 sparked the LGBTQ rights movement in the United States; and

WHEREAS, during these riots, LGBTQ citizens, led by transgender women of color, rose up and resisted police harassment that arose out of discriminatory criminal laws that have since been declared unconstitutional; and

WHEREAS, in the decades since the Stonewall riots, Pride celebrations have taken place around the country every June to commemorate this historic turning point for the LGBTQ community; and

WHEREAS, following the 1984 murder of Charlie Howard, a young gay man in Bangor, LGBTQ Mainers came together to form the Maine Lesbian/Gay Political Alliance, now known as EqualityMaine; and

WHEREAS, in 1993, the Maine Civil Rights Act was amended to include explicit protections for LGBTQ people, ensuring the law served to protect against bias-based threats, harms and hate crimes; and

WHEREAS, as a national leader for LGBTQ equality, Maine has included protections for LGBTQ people in parentage and antibullying laws; and

WHEREAS, Maine has continued to improve access to relationship equality, passing laws that extend hospital visitation rights to same-sex couples in 1999, require health insurance companies to offer to employers coverage for domestic partnerships in 2001, extend inheritance rights and next of kin status for funeral and burial arrangements and conservator rights to same-sex and unmarried heterosexual couples in 2004 and include domestic partnerships in the law governing family medical leave in 2007; and

WHEREAS, the people of Maine voted to prohibit discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity in 2005 and in favor of marriage equality in 2012; and

WHEREAS, in 2014, Maine was the first state in the nation whose highest court ruled it unlawful for a school district to prohibit a transgender student from accessing the bathroom consistent with that student's gender identity, interpreting for the first time amendments to the Maine Human Rights Act that expanded protections to include sexual orientation; and

WHEREAS, since 2018, Maine has added a nonbinary gender designation for state identification cards and birth certificates, prohibited transgender exclusions in health insurance plans, banned the harmful practice of conversion therapy and secured state-level benefits for veterans who were discharged from the military due to their sexual orientation or gender identity; and

WHEREAS, despite years of progress, members of the LGBTQ community in the United States and around the world still face discrimination, violence and proposed rollbacks in state and federal protections, and bias-based crimes based on sexual orientation and gender identity are on the rise; and

WHEREAS, here in Maine there is a commitment to protecting the civil rights of LGBTQ Mainers and to treating all people fairly and equally and with dignity and respect; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Thirty-first Legislature now assembled in the First Special Session, on behalf of the people we represent, take this opportunity to recognize June 2023 as Pride Month as we continue to work toward full equality for our LGBTQ family, friends and neighbors.

Comes from the House, READ and ADOPTED.

ORDERS*Joint Orders

Expressions of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

(4-1) the Town of Waldoboro, which is celebrating its 250th anniversary. Waldoboro was incorporated as a town in 1773 after about 30 years of settlement as a village named Broad Bay. The town's early industry in shipbuilding, which once ranked Waldoboro as the sixth port in the United States, continued until steamships displaced sails in the early 1900s. We extend our congratulations and best wishes;

SLS 871

Sponsored by Senator RENY of Lincoln.

Cosponsored by Representative: SIMMONS of Waldoboro.

(4-2) Chuck Hays, of Manchester, who is retiring as President and Chief Executive Officer of MaineGeneral Health. In 1995, Mr. Hays joined what is now the State's third-largest health care system, MaineGeneral Health. In the more than 20 years since Mid-Maine Health System joined Kennebec Valley Health System to become MaineGeneral Health, he has held a number of positions of increasing responsibility. As Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, he headed the team responsible for the construction and operation of the Harold Alfond Center for Cancer Care, which opened in July 2007. In October 2007, he was named President and Chief Executive Officer of MaineGeneral Medical Center. In 2013, he became President and Chief Executive Officer of the parent company, MaineGeneral Health. Under his leadership, MaineGeneral Medical Center has been recognized with many distinguished national quality awards and has been recognized as one of the best hospitals in the world for 2022 and 2023 by Newsweek Magazine. He is a member of the American College of Healthcare Professionals, Maine Hospital Association and American Hospital Association and currently serves on the Mid-Maine Chamber of Commerce Board, Kennebec Savings Bank Board, serving as Vice Chair, Alfond Youth and Community Center Board, Maine Health and Higher Education Funding Authority and Maine Dartmouth Residency Board. We extend our appreciation and best wishes;

SLS 872

Sponsored by Senator HICKMAN of Kennebec.

Cosponsored by Representative: SHAGOURY of Hallowell.
