Joint Resolution

Joint Resolution in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-11) Emily Mary-Evelyn Fournier, of Fairfield. Mrs. Fournier had myriad artistic, literary and theatrical interests. She was a lifelong student of dance and an accomplished poet, writer and theatrical director. She worked with many organizations and publications until her death. She was a co-founder and executive director of Recycled Shakespeare Company, based in Waterville, and a leader in making Shakespeare accessible to all who desired to participate, forming a troupe of performers drawn from all walks of life and social groups. The company, under her leadership, was also an internationally recognized leader in ecologically sustainable theater practices, relying on the re-use of discarded materials for sets, props and costumes and repurposing existing spaces in the community to hold rehearsals and performances. Outside of her work in theater and the arts, she led an active life filled with charitable and compassionate works. Ms. Fournier will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched;
